

6516206005.txt

Satellite radio and all other inovative new business ideas should not be prohibited from providing valuable services and information to it's listeners. The monopoly of media ownership in this country as already turned radio into a boring entity.